

Career Survey

2015

Survey Design

Nearly 6,000 respondents

Students

Young professionals

Career Prospects and Economic Forecast

Future Career Prospects

Most students and young professionals are confident

Germany

Romania

China

Top box

Competitiveness of the Home Countries' Companies

Respondents rate differently on economic development

Germany

Romania

China

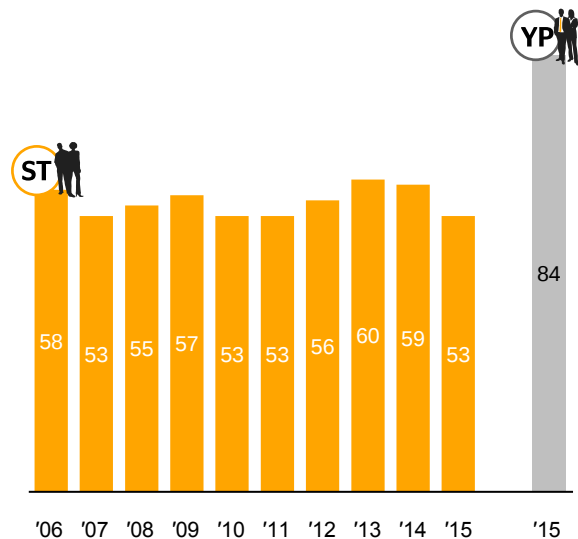

Figures in percent ;top box

Personal Competitiveness in Landing an Attractive Job

Chinese and Romanian students are getting more confident

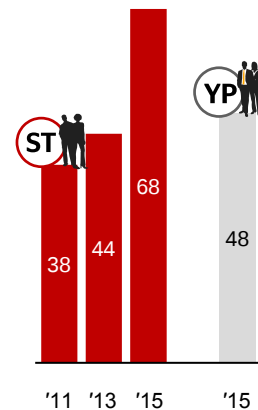

Germany

Romania

China

Figures in percent; top box

Mobility and Internationality

Where Would You Search for a Job?

First international working experiences open young professionals' minds

Germany

Romania

China

Favorite Countries for Working Abroad

Commonly U.S.A., Switzerland, Germany

Germany

Romania

China

Figures in percent;
up to three most common answers

Pros and Cons of Taking a Job Abroad

Pro: above-average pay – Con: family and relationships

Pros

If the pay is above average and there are financial benefits

If the tasks involved are particularly interesting

If it is part of a career plan

Cons

Family and relationships

Lack of preparation or cultural barriers

Uncertainty about where my career will go from there

Future of Work

Working Regularly on Weekends

Flexibility on the one hand – clear position against it on the other

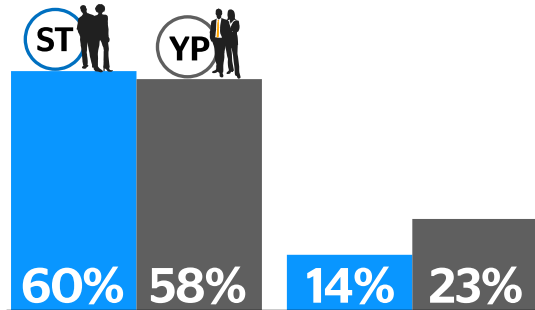

Germany

I would contemplate it in the context of flexible weekly hours or from time to time

It would be a reason for me not to take the job or to leave such a job

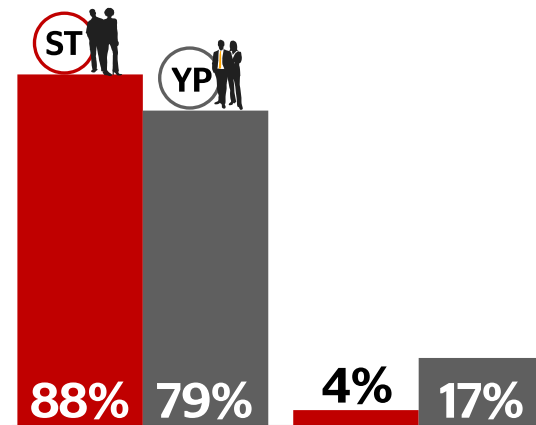

Romania

I would contemplate it in the context of flexible weekly hours or from time to time

It would be a reason for me not to take the job or to leave such a job

China

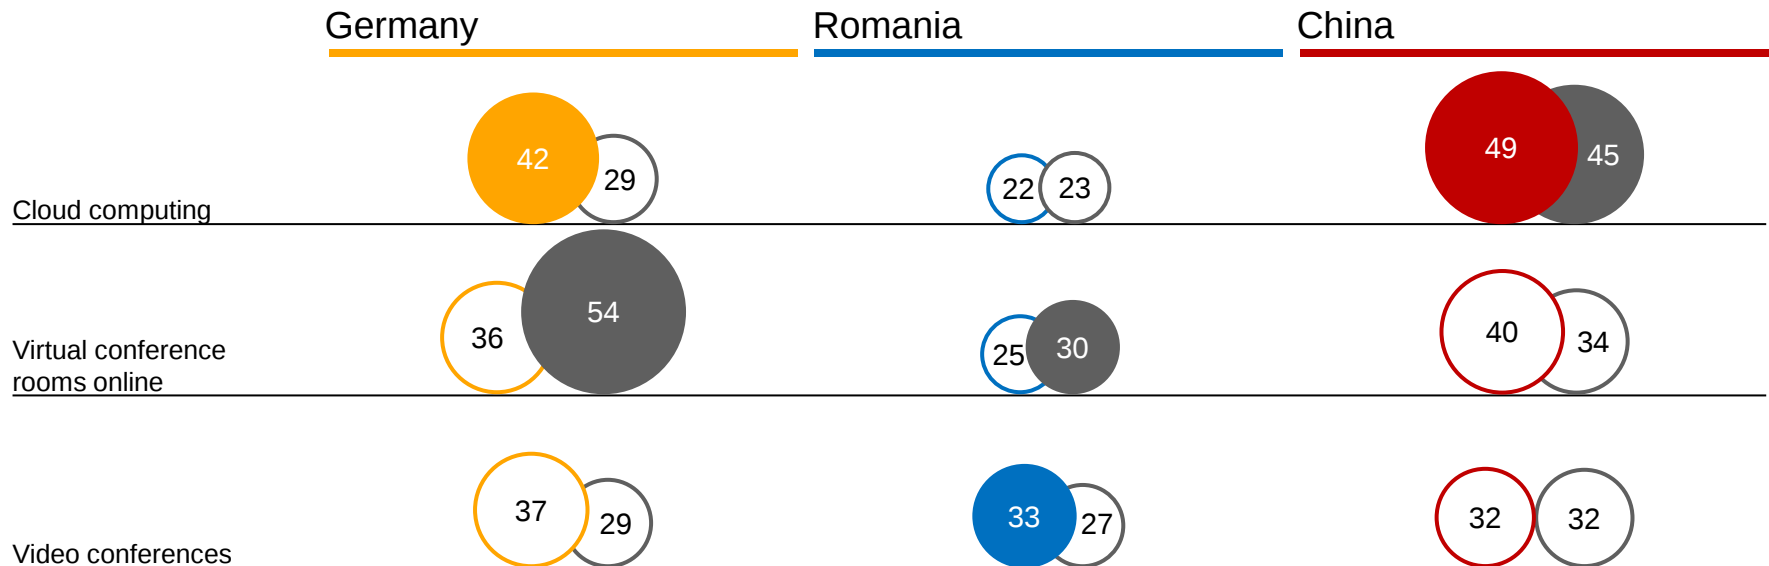

I would contemplate it in the context of flexible weekly hours or from time to time

It would be a reason for me not to take the job or to leave such a job

Technical Developments for Work Within Next Five Years

Cloud computing, virtual and video conferences will influence working conditions

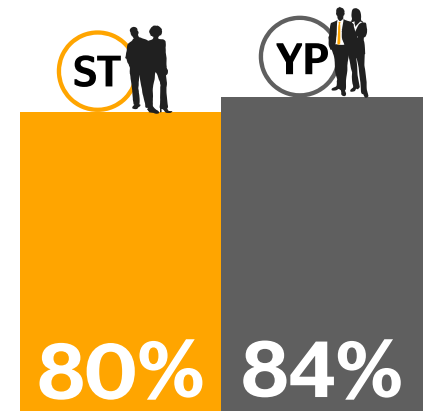

Figures in percent

Changes in 2035 Due to Technologies That Do Not Exist Yet

Great trend of modernization is expected

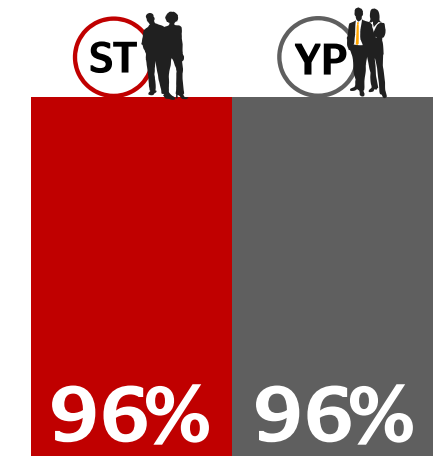

Germany

Romania

China

Top box

shape the future.